

MAURICIO OLIVERA GONZALEZ

Fifth Line Principal Member

Appointment Date by Superintendency:

18 october, 2022

Current Position:

Independent member

Date of Birth:

October 17, 1968

Profession:

Economist from Universidad de los Andes with Masters in Economics from George Washington University and University of Maryland, as well as a PhD candidate from George Washington University.

Experience:

He has served as Administrative and Financial Vice Chancellor of the Universidad de los Andes, President of COLPENSIONES, General Director of Econometrics Consultants, General Manager of FAMISANAR, Vice Minister of Employment and Pensions of the Ministry of Labor, researcher of Fedesarrollo, Advisor of the Inter-American Development Bank IDB and Head of Division of the National Planning Department.

Participation in other Board of Directors:

He has participated in Colpensiones and Nueva EPS.

He is not reported as PEP, Politically Exposed Person.

Findeter board committees to which he belongs:

- Corporate governance
- Gap Asset and Liability Management